*New River Valley Chapter
 Outstanding Member of the Year*

~ Rachel Hall Smith ~

Each spring, the NRV Chapter of IAAP, awards the Outstanding Member of the Year award to a deserving chapter member who has worked diligently throughout the year for the good of the chapter and who has unselfishly given time and dedication toward the betterment of the chapter. Because of the high ideals and standards of purpose surrounding this award, all recipients must be members of the Association for at least two years and have served the chapter in various capacities, even during the beginning years of their membership.

Here are a few comments from the many that were stated about Rachel and her dedication to our chapter:

She has distinguished herself during her relatively short membership in the NRV Chapter. She leads by example.

She's an encourager and a true blessing to have around.

She is a true asset to the NRV chapter.

She shares her dedication to her faith, family and work, as well as to her IAAP family.

There was a quote in the June chapter newsletter that I believe sums up Rachel's character-

"I expect to pass through this world but once. If there be any kindness I can show, any good I can do, any help I can give, let me do it now: for I will not pass this way again"—D.L. Moody

Rachel has served on numerous committees in the past two years. She has attended many chapter meetings as well as division annual meetings. She has worked diligently as the corresponding secretary for the past year. She is a wonderful newsletter editor and has also taken on the role of corresponding secretary during this past year. Please join me in congratulating Rachel for her achievements and say thanks for a job well done.
